Cosulich Interiors in collaboration with Atelier Terrai: Bespoke console, entirely handcrafted in Italy, out of one solid block in white Carrara marble with an elegant satin finish. The Evolution collection, an organic modern design series, is inspired by nature, earth and water, and speaks about contrast, combining sharp edgy shapes in engraved straight lines and smooth round melting curves, to create an exclusive striking piece.

Can be accompanied by a mirror in the same design, ref. ATEM1.
